Society Insurance Awards Scholarships to UW Oshkosh Students

FOND DU LAC, Wis. (October 23, 2020) — Society Insurance and the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh recently recognized two local students as recipients of the Society Insurance Charitable Scholarship. Olivia Holland and Aleaya Neu received $1,000 scholarships for the 2020-2021 academic year during a certificate presentation on September 30 at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, Fond du Lac campus.

“This is a challenging time for all of us, and it especially impacts students in their education journey,” said Rick Parks, president and CEO of Society Insurance. “This scholarship program is our way to help students achieve their goals and go on to make a positive impact in the community.”

The Society Insurance Charitable Scholarship was established in 2012 in conjunction with the UW-Fond du Lac Foundation. Society awards scholarships annually to deserving students through the Society Insurance Charitable Foundation.
